DATA PROTECTION ACT STATEMENT

As a member your details, as given on your application form, are kept on a personal computer at the home of the membership secretary. They are used by the membership secretary on behalf of the club to produce Club Mailing labels, Membership Lists and other extracted lists. This information is not given or sold to any third parties outside the club except in the form of the membership list in the annual club handbook, a few of which may be bought each year by non members. If you do not wish your details to be published in the handbook members list, please sign the appropriate statement overleaf. Please note that failure to sign either statement means that your details will be printed as normal.

RULES AND CODE OF ETHICS

As well as its rules contained in the constitution, the club does have a Code of Ethics pertaining mainly to the way members treat and deal with their Labrador. By means of this code the club does recommend certain practices, particularly relating to breeding of Labrador. You should at least be aware of the content of the Code of Ethics because, whilst absolute adherence to its content is not deemed mandatory, serious breaches could ultimately result in your exclusion from the club.

A copy of the code should have been supplied with this form. And is on the club website

DECLARATION

I/We agree to be bound by the rules of the Midland Counties Labrador Retriever Club and fully understand that the committee of the club reserves the right to refuse an application for membership or at anytime review my/our continued membership within the procedures of the constitution. I am/We are aware of the Code of Ethics and will endeavor to consider its recommendations at all times.
